Tartars by 14 After 59-7 Lawndale Rout

By JOHN WHITACRE
Press Football Writer
Coach Irv Kastens, Torrance High Varsity footballers host Beverly Hills tomorrow night, after crushing a weak Lawndale squad 59-7, last Saturday night.

The Tartars are rated a strong two touchdown favorite over the Normans in tomorrow night's clash, Coach Kastens emptied the bench against Lawndale with every one of the 45 member Torrance squad seeing action.

Jerry Mclean THS's Junior halfback carried the ball 14 times for 150 yards, giving him a 10 yard per carry average. Torrance gained 309 yards rushing and 76 yards passing in their conquest over Lawndale.

Torrance scored first midway thru the first quarter when Mclean intercepted a Cardinal pass on THS's own 40 yard line, then the Mclean led Tartars rambled 60 yards, with Quarterback Howard Taylor tossing a 9 yard pass to halfback Hike Irvine who went over for the score.

The Tartars scored again when early in the second quarter, second string back Mike Tracy ran 15 yards off tackle, and also kicked the extra point making the score 13-0 in favor of the Tartars at halftime.

Midway thru the third quarter Lawndale found themselves on the scoreboard when quarterback Ralph Hughes rambled 25 yards for the Cardinals first touchdown of the season.

Torrance came right back, when Howard Taylor tossed a 35 yard pass to end Cliff Weimer to set up a 7 yard touchdown run by halfback Mclean.

THS added three more TD's in the fourth quarter, one a 28 yard touchdown strike from Taylor to Weimer, Rick Bradford a second string back added two more on runs of 7 and 5 yards.

Tomorrow night, Coach Kastens is expected to start Weimer and Rick Hood at ends, John Carlson and John Keith tackles, Mas Minueto and Ric Hansen the guards, and Senior Tom Holdsworth at Center.

In the backfield will be Captain Taylor at quarterback, while Mclean and Irvine will be stationed at halfbacks, and Allan Billings the slotback.

North Favored by 7 Points in Bay League Grid Contest

By BRUCE ALLYSON
Press Football Writer

An overflow crowd, that may exceed 6000, is expected to see inter-city rivals North and South High clash in a football encounter tomorrow night at North High Stadium.

Led by Coach Bob Shoup the Saxons from North High are favored by seven points to take their South Torrance opponents who have not won a single Bay League game since the start of competition.

South, losers to Hawthorne and Redondo in successive weeks, took its opening game when they defeated a Dominguez eleven in a pre-season contest. The Saxons broke a long standing jinx and, defeated Warren High, walloped Inglewood 19-6 but was downed by a spirited Morningside contingent last week 13-7.

Although Joe Austin and Bob Wehrhan were handled effectively by the Cougars and Seahawks they still pose a problem for Shoup and his gridders. Austin is a big triple threat star who can bust up a game with a long run, an expertly thrown pass to Mike Andrews, or boom a punt away from the waiting arms of the opposition. Wehrhan is a pulverizing back who can really chew up the yardage through any spot on the front wall. Bob is also an effective pass receiver and a broken-field runner once he's got that ball tucked away and heading for paydirt.

For the Saxons this year a sophomore quarterback, Carey Hubert, has proved to Shoup that he is a leader capable of leading North to a Bay League championship despite their loss to Morningside.

The athletic offices of both schools warn us that tickets are going rapidly so best you contact someone at North or South High and assure yourself a seat to this battle that zooms as the star attraction of the year.

Warriors Look to 1st Victory Against LAVC

Having sampled the power of two of the nation's top 10 junior college football juggernauts, the El Camino College Warriors will continue their quest for Metropolitan Conference victory number one Saturday night when they meet L.A. Valley College at 8 p.m. in Murdock Stadium.

The Monarchs, boasting 16 returning lettermen and several outstanding prep stars, will face a team that bounced from a horrifying 55-6 defeat by the Bakersfield Renegades to a 12-8 setback at the hands of the Long Beach Vikings.

With the line m top physical shape, the battling Warriors will be out to save face at the expense of the remaining five contenders in the rough Metropolitan Conference.

Warrior star Jim Valmore will be nursing the sore ankle which has plagued him throughout the still-young season. Against the rugged Long Beach defense "Val" was held to sparse yardage on the ground, but through the airwaves the Warrior scabbard caught five for 45 yards.

The Tribe will oppose a team that was humiliated by San Diego, 55-0, last weekend. Bolstering the Monarch passing attack will be Phil Romoli, a letterman from last year, and Jim Zar, captain and end, for the hopeful LA crew.

Romoli will be the starting quarterback, with strong contention from all-leaguers Bob Berry from Poly High School and Stan Reynolds from San Pedro High.

Heading the linemen will be All-City center Tom Garner, who played his prep ball at Van Nuys High School.

Boasting tackles who average 220 pounds, the Valley line will present somewhat of an obstacle to the smaller, but determined Tribe aggregation.

The Monarch will employ a pro-style offense that is designed to pin-point passes to ends Zar and Bob Wholford,

Stock Cars Go in Final Nascar meet

One of the classiest fields of new model stock cars will go into action Saturday night at Ascot Stadium in the season's final meet of NASCAR competition.

Not only will this be the 1960 stock car finale, but also it will be the program that will decide the NASCAR Pacific Coast driver championship, with only a few points separating the first five drivers in the point standings.

In the lead and a favorite to win the title is Marvin Potter of Lakewood, pilot of a '59 Ford, and 1959 NASCAR national short track champion Man has destroyed in hours and days.

FORREST FIRES

It is reported by the Forest Service that nine out of ten forest fires are man caused, and could have been prevented. What Nature has developed over years and centuries Man has destroyed in hours and days.

WATERFIELD TO BLAME FOR RAM QUARTERBACK FAILURE

It was 12:30 p.m. The date—Sunday, Oct. 16, minutes after the completion of the TV game played by the Rams and the Colts.

Like any other loyal Los Angeles fan, my blood pressure zoomed to an unbelievable height after the 31-17 Ram loss. I left the house hurriedly fearful that my temper would cause me to whack the TV picture tube with an axe from my trusty Sears tool kit or that I would use profane language in front of my youngsters. My relic of an auto guided me to Jody's Coffee Shop at Hawthorne and Torrance Blvd's.

Scowling at the cute blonde waitress (proves I was mad), I ordered some sausage and eggs and a cup of strong black brew. Before the tasty but belated breakfast dish arrived my hearing apparatus got tuned-in to a conversation between two gents seated at a nearby booth. The discourse that ensued brought out my thoughts on the Rams perfectly. So, without another word from this corner, let's get into it.

Horrible Quarterbacking

GREEN-TIE GENT: I should have gone to church like the wife wanted. I would have been spared the lousy football played by the Rams.

RED-TIE GENT: Likewise. No championship in Los Angeles this year. Not with the way Waterfield has ruined the team.

GREEN-TIE: Whaddya mean?

RED-TIE: The way he handles his quarterbacks. He was a great one when he played but he got his savvy from a smart coach. You think he'd stay with one signal-caller, but no, he has to alternate Wade, Ryan and Humphrey. How does he expect the men to follow the leader when the man isn't in there long enough to win their confidence?

GREEN-TIE: You're right! As soon as Wade makes a mistake he dumps him. The other coaches around the league stay with a quarterback until he makes a few errors before they yank him. . . Did you notice the way Lennie Moore ran right through the whole team?

Where's Richter?

RED-TIE: Not just once but three times. And where was Les Richter?

GREEN-TIE: I wondered where the "ace" linebacker was also. The way Bob Kelley was broadcasting the game you'd think Les was in on almost every tackle. Thank God for the picture tube—you had a chance to see if No. 48 was in on all the tackling. He wasn't, of course. I think he's slowed up this year—not the great Richter he was in years gone by.

RED-TIE: Did you also notice that the Rams were not red-dogging Johnny Unitas. Waterfield's boys were giving him plenty of time to spot his receivers. They should have busted in on him from time to time—like the Colts did to Humphrey, Wade and Ryan.

GREEN-TIE: The Bears come to town next Sunday. Think the Rams will be able to win their first game?

RED-TIE: Frankly, I don't give a damn! What good would it do them if they did? Me, I'm going to take the family and go up to the mountains. Why should I spend a miserable afternoon at the Coliseum? If the Chargers were in town I'd go see them. After all, they won three games.

GREEN-TIE: You know, I think I'll switch to the Chargers, too. I don't like Sid Gillman very well, but the team is pretty good. And more competition in the AFL than in the NFL. Notice the way the teams are upsetting each other?
